Ricardo,

As I'm sure you know, Park Strategies and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

We're painting a picture for U.S. Senator Orrin Hatch's office (Utah) of Utah's exports to Taiwan. What I know, according to Trade Stats express, is that Utah companies sold $728 million in goods and services to Taiwan in 2008. Utah's top five categories of exports to Taiwan are computers and electronics products, processed foods, chemicals, machinery, and transportation equipment.

Do you have any more color, or specifics, on Utah's exports to Taiwan beyond that? Do any particular products, or companies come to mind? I've also copied Amcham on this message in the event they have any helpful insights on this matter, thanks in advance for anything you can tell me.

Kindest regards,

Ricardo,

Thanks for your prompt reply. Let's say this....we'll send Senator Hatch's office what we have now. Then, next week, we can follow-up with anything specific you might find on Utah. How's that?
Take care, thanks again. I'll be in Taiwan late next week, FYI.

Be well,

Hi Sean,

We're one day away from our biggest publishing trade event for the year. Tomorrow is the grand opening of our 14-booth US Pavilion promoting over 700 US titles available for copyright sales and representing over 200 US publishers. Needless to say it's a bit hectic over here. Can I get back to you next week?

Thanks!
Ricardo

AP sources: Obama officials tell Congress US will make new weapons sale to Taiwan

By FOSTER KLUG

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON

Senior U.S. congressional aides say the Obama administration has notified Congress that it has decided to make a new weapons sale to Taiwan.

The sale could worsen already tense ties between Washington and Beijing, which considers Taiwan a renegade province.

The sale is likely to include UH-60 Black Hawk helicopters, Patriot Advanced Capability-3 missiles and material related to Taiwan's defense communications network.

The aides said Monday that the administration has been consulting with Congress ahead of a formal announcement of the sale. The aides, who have direct knowledge of the meetings, spoke under condition of anonymity because the notification is not yet official.

F-16 fighter jets are not likely to be included.

Thanks, Sarah! This is all we can ask for. We obviously appreciate whatever more you can tell us when you know it, but thanks so much for now for this very timely information.

Sean,

I apologize for just getting back with you. And I meant to actually write you back before Christmas regarding your kind note about my boss and his work on climate change. We really appreciate the support! As you know, he gets a lot of criticism for his position. so it is always nice to hear from those who support him!
As far as the Taiwan arms sales, the administration will release the notification to Congress on Friday. I know that's not much info but they did verify that it will happen and when. I hope this helps!

Best, Sarah
